Agenda Items:

On the Rise Conference: Blaske used Chamber CC to pay for conference fee and hotel stay in Pierre: $300 + $131.86 + $61.30, Promotion Board will reimburse Chamber.

2022 Chamber Member Invitation: Blaske informed the Board that the Sisseton Courier had printed the invitations and he is delivering them to local businesses & organizations.

Sisseton Apparel: It was discussed that the idea of Sisseton-based merchandise is a great idea, we will wait until the 2022 is finalized until moving further.

NYE Bar Crawl: It was discussed by the Board that it was a relative success and a thank you to the Sisseton Community Transit again or free rides. Rosalie's confirmed they will host the St. Patrick's Day event. It was asked to look into the Firemen hosting during the Celebrate Sisseton Days.

Winter Show: Blaske will email the vendor list or new information on the event. It was tentatively pushed back until mid-March. A meeting soon will gather more specifics.

Budget / Financials Update: The Promotion Board and Sisseton Economic Development Corp. approved 4th quarter wage reimbursement for Nicholas Blaske, but was not in this meeting's financials. Blaske notified the Board that it will be added on next month's financials.

Chamber Cheques: Blaske informed the Board that the company that printed them years ago will be $1453.75 for 3000 checks. He found another company to do it for $274.79 for 4800 but they are without the hologram.
